
Differences are comparison minus reference: negative values favor the comparison method. Bias is compared as |bias|; whiskers are paired percentile 95% confidence intervals.